SUBJECT : REVISED DA FREEDOM OF INFORMATION (FOI) MANUAL

The Executive Order (EO) No. 2, series of 2016, better known as the Freedom of Information (FOI), operationalizes the executive branch of people's constitutional right to information and the state policies to full public disclosure and transparency in the public service.

Since its implementation, the Department of Agriculture (DA) has actively supported the FOI program because it reinforces the Department's efforts to promote transparency, accountability, and citizen participation in government.

To continue the administration and facilitation of the FOI mechanism in the entire DA family nationwide, the enclosed revised "DA Freedom of Information Manual" is hereby adopted.

All DA officials and employees shall adhere to the provisions of the said manual. This contains the procedures and regulations in the application of the law, so that the balance between the peoples' right to information and the government's need to protect its data will be properly applied.

All DA regional field offices and its bureaus, attached agencies, and attached corporations are highly encouraged to post the said manual on their website.

This Memorandum Order shall take effect immediately upon signing and supersedes all orders, memoranda, and other issuances inconsistent herewith.

Done this 8th day of February 2023.

- b. If the government office has asked the requesting party for further details to identify and locate the requested information, the date on which the necessary clarification is received.

An exception to this will be where the request has been emailed to an absent member of staff, and this has generated an 'out of office' message with instructions on how to redirect the message to another contact. Where this is the case, the date of receipt will be the day the request arrives in the inbox of that contact.

Should the requested information need further details to identify or locate, then the 15 working days will commence the day after it receives the required clarification from the requesting party.

2. Initial Evaluation. After receipt of the request for information, the FRO shall evaluate the contents of the request.

The 15 working day requirement for the receiving office commences the day after it receives the request.
- If the records refer to an office not within the coverage of E.O. No. 2, the requesting party shall be advised accordingly and provided with the contact details of that office, if known.

2.3. Requested information is already posted and available online:

Should the information being requested is already posted and publicly available in the DEPARTMENT website (da.gov.ph), data.gov.ph, or foi.gov.ph, the FRO shall inform the requesting party of the said fact and provide them the website link where the information is posted.

The FDM shall ensure that the complete information requested be submitted to the FRO within 10 days upon receipt of such request.

The FRO shall note the date and time of receipt of the information from the FDM and report to the DEPARTMENT Secretary or the designated FDM, or Heads of agencies, bureaus, and offices, in case the submission is beyond the 10-day period.

If the FDM needs further details to identify or locate the information, he shall, through the FRO, seek clarification from the requesting party. The clarification shall stop the running of the 15 working day period and will commence the day after it receives the required clarification from the requesting party.

If the FDM determines that a record contains information of interest to another office, the FDM shall consult with the agency concerned on the disclosability of the records before making any final determination.

5. Role of FRO to transmit the information to the requesting party: Upon receipt of the requested information from the FDM, the FRO shall collate and ensure that the information is complete. He shall attach a cover/transmittal letter signed by the DEPARTMENT Secretary or the designated FDM, or Heads of agencies, bureaus, and offices concerned and ensure the transmittal of such to the requesting party within 15 working days upon receipt of the request for information.

6. Request for an Extension of Time: If the information requested requires extensive search of the government's office records facilities, examination of voluminous records, the occurrence of fortuitous events or other analogous cases, the FDM should inform the FRO.

The FRO shall inform the requesting party of the extension, setting forth the reasons for such extension. In no case shall the extension exceed twenty (20) working days on top of the mandated fifteen (15) working days to act on the request, unless exceptional circumstances warrant a longer period.

7. Notice to the Requesting Party of the Approval/Denial of the Request:

Once the DM approved or denied the request, he shall immediately notify the FRO who shall prepare the response to the requesting party either in writing or by email. All actions on FOI requests, whether approval or denial, shall pass through the DEPARTMENT Secretary or any of his designated Undersecretaries or Assistant Secretaries for final approval.

8. Approval of Request: In case of approval, the FRO shall ensure that all records that have been retrieved and considered be checked for possible exemptions prior to actual release. The FRO shall prepare the letter or email informing the requesting party within the prescribed period that the request was granted and be directed to pay the applicable fees, if any.

9. Denial of Request: In case of denial of the request wholly or partially, the FRO shall, within the prescribed period, notify the requesting party of the denial in writing. The notice shall clearly set forth the ground or grounds for denial and the circumstances on which the denial is based. Failure to notify the requesting party of the action taken on the request within the period herein provided shall be deemed a denial of the request to information. All denials on FOI requests shall pass through the FDM.

SECTION 6. REMEDIES IN CASE OF DENIAL

A person whose request for access to information has been denied may avail himself of the remedy set forth below:

1. Administrative FOI Appeal to the DEPARTMENT Central Appeals and Review Committee: Provided that the written appeal must be filed by the same requesting party within fifteen (15) calendar days from the notice of denial or from the lapse of the period to respond to the request.
